identifying what you want to improve

- Take an inventory of your strengths and weaknesses in conjunction with the bagua.
- Do you need to work on health or want more romance or to increase finances?
- Are you having positive family, friend and co-worker relationships? Do you want a partner?
- Could you use more recognition or want fame?
- Do you want to go back to school or a new career?
- Would you like to have children or get more creative and write a book?

It is all in the intention

- Once you have purged all the items that are not going to bring a new energy and good chi into your space, now you are ready to place items into your bagua areas. You will take each chosen object you kept from your purge and identify which area of your home it would best bring you the ideal outcome you are intending.
- When you place the object in your bagua intend it for the purpose that you have in mind for it. For instance I would place two swan tchotchkes in my romance area. I would put some coins or money and my finest crystal dish in my prosperity area. I would put my Feng Shui books in my skills and knowledge area.
- I would put money in my prosperity area.
- I put fresh fruit in or near my health area
- I have a candle of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln in my Helping People area and an Angel Vase.

The Importance of Patterns in Feng Shui www.i-deal-lifestyle.com

Understanding how there are patterns in designs, nature, furniture, homes and there is a flow and ebb to different shapes is important as a Feng Shui specialist. It very well may have an impact into how we see ourselves and our clients in their homes and lives, in order to help define how we harmonize with our surroundings.

It is interesting to see how shapes started, and what they symbolize, and how they can be interconnected and create energy or calm. Shapes like circles, squares, triangles and their history is fascinating. It has a transforming affect on people when they are exposed to different symbols. You can spot patterns and shapes in everything in the world and nature. You can start to really take notice of objects in your surroundings, and in turn each object can mean more then just the picture, texture or color. The shape of the object can stimulate you, and help you become aware of the power of a shape.

It is amazing that all patterns are found in nature and even our own bodies, and that we should look deeper and with more passion noticing trends, the many uses, the beauty and the function of geometry shapes and their necessity in our lives.

Even a cat's face has a shape, which I never really understood before, but was always drawn towards. They always look so mysterious, and interestingly enough their face is shaped like a pentagon.

It is also very interesting that numbers relate to shapes, music, art and just about everything in the universe has an associated shape and number and vibratory rate, which connects everything in the universe together.

What People Want To Organize bedrooms, clothes, knick knacks, supplies, bathrooms, kitchen, living area, garden, baby's room, sheds, storage, garage, limited space, kids, people with disabilities, small children, car, drawers, pantries, cabinets, visitors, parents, themselves, de-cluttering, staying organized, varied interests and tools or equipment so they can enjoy their interests, how to combine two people's stuff in one place, behavioral techniques to stay organized, interior design ideas, cute and efficient ways to set up a desk, how to deal with mail, financial management, filing, business, paperwork, bills, having too much stuff, no storage, creative storage, mind clutter, and what to keep, throw away or donate.

Consequences of Disorganization confusion, stress, loss of time, loss of items, feeling overwhelmed, chaos, cleaning becoming overwhelming when things pile up, losing things, taking too much time to find things, missing items, can't find anything, waste of money, buying storage helpers but not using them, buying organization tools and not using them, buying too much stuff on-line, on sale, buying the same things over and over since they don't remember they have them, forgetfulness, crazed feelings, tired, fatigue, disappointment, misplaced documents, not getting things done on time, missing appointments, missing celebrations, bills not getting paid on time, mortgage or rent not getting paid on time, poor credit, depression, anxiety, funk, worry and embarrassment and most important poor health.

Feng Shui Tips www.i-deal-lifestyle.com

- Clean Windows. Like your eyes are the windows of soul Windows are the eyes of your home. When you have dirty windows it is a symbol that your vision is blinded and cloudy. Clean windows help you see all your potential and opportunities clearly.
- Replace Burned Out Light Bulbs or broken lamps, lights. You cannot see your future prospects if your lamps and lights and bulbs are burnt out. It is also bad for your eyesight. It also means you're burnt out. Get your lighting straight and see your bright and favorable life ahead of you.
- Tighten Knobs, Door Handles, Bathroom Faucets. When you have loose handles you lose your grip. Everything just slips away and you can't hold onto money, friends, family or anything your working on wrapping your arms around or your brain for that matter.
- Make Sure You Have Healthy and Live plants, not dead ones. Dead plants are dead energy. Always have lively and happy plants that are well watered and fed. Fame, recognition, expansion, financial prosperity and health depend on healthy living things in your home and office.
- Keep Toilet Lids Down and drains covered. Keep a lid on it in order to protect your chi (energy) from going down the drain. You don't want to flush away or drain your wealth, knowledge, health or other valuables down the toilet. Keep a lid on all toilets, and close the drains while not using, and close the door to all bathrooms when you leave.

Feng Shui Tips www.i-deal-lifestyle.com

- NOTHING UNDER THE BED. Storing items of any kind under your bed will not make for a restful and peaceful slumber. You will be rest-less. All that stuff, stuffed under the bed is hindering your dream state and your waking life. It symbolizes underlying issues which you cannot sort through.
- Clean Mirrors. When your mirrors are dirty you cannot see yourself clearly. If it impossible for any one else to see you clearly, or “get you”, if you cannot see yourself clearly. Plus like my mother always said, when she would see someone who looked disheveled, walking down the street, “Did they look in the mirror this morning?” When your mirrors are sprayed with toothpaste, water spots, and dirt you cannot attract what you desire in life. You will miss out on clear opportunities, people and self understanding.
- Clean Front Door. This is the first thing people see when they come to your home and it represents the beginning with you. Energy comes in and out of our doors and windows. Your front door area, when clean, brings positive energy, and when dirty and unattractive it repels abundance. Put or plant some purple flowers near front door and bring abundance.
- NOTHING BEHIND DOORS. Having items and mirrors or pictures or anything behind a door means you have a hidden agenda. It also blocks free passage for new opportunities and freedoms.

Feng Shui Tips www.i-deal-lifestyle.com

- Fix Drippy and Leaky faucets or pipes. Don't let your wealth, relationships, health knowledge, reputation leak and drip away from you. This is also a symbol of bigger and worse outcomes for you in all your prospects. Fix your leaks, faucets and pipes and keep in good order and you won't feel so drained all the time.
- Get rid of dried up and or broken pens, markers. Sharpen all you pencils and dot your i's.
- Clean out your closet of all unused, torn, worn clothing that doesn't fit you or washes you out. Replace all old items with new clothing that make you look more attractive and are the correct colors for your hair and skin tone.
- Get rid of fake plants unless you absolutely have no sun in a room, and want the affect of plants. Make sure they look totally real and keep them fresh and dusted. Fake plants represent a fake part of yourself, and dried flowers mean that an aspect of your life is dried up. Stay away from all fake plants and flowers if you can. Keep fresh flowers and plants in your space at all times. It brings growth into your life and oxygen into your lungs.
- Store all pictures from your phone and cameras onto your computer and keep open for new pictures and opportunities. Learn how to video and put yourself on youtube.com.

Feng Shui Tips www.i-deal-lifestyle.com

- Clean out your files and feel open and clear.
- Give magazines and books away that you have read. Believe me you can find a similar article on-line.
- Read as many easy to use Feng Shui books as you can, and start moving your stuff around and see great changes in your life.
- Know the difference between need and want items. You need to have a refrigerator, toilet, bed, good water source, telephone, bed, food, touch etc... but you don't need anything else. Everything else is a want or a don't want.
- Let loose and do the funky chicken dance or purge, your choice, or do both at the same time!!!
